Routes to Cardiff

By Road

Cardiff is served by the M4 and is easily accessible from all parts of Britain. From the south west, take the M5 and from the south of England, follow major A-roads to the M4. From Scotland, the north of England and the Midlands, travel via the M50 to the M4.

Travelling east on the M4. Leave the motorway at Junction 32, follow the A470, sign-posted City Centre.

The Cathays Park campus – Follow the A470 towards the city centre and the University is sign-posted.

The Heath Park campus – Follow the A470 as far as Gabalfa Interchange. Take first exit onto the A48 (Eastern Avenue), sign-posted Newport and the M4, but immediately exit at the slip road on the left. This leads directly onto the University Hospital site.

Travelling west on the M4. Leave the motorway at Junction 29, follow the A48(M)/A48, sign-posted Cardiff East and the South. Continue for approximately seven miles.

The Cathays Park campus – Continue along the A48 to the A470 (Gabalfa Interchange). Leave the A48 at Gabalfa Interchange and take the A470, sign-posted city centre. Follow the A470 towards the city centre and the University is sign-posted.

The Heath Park campus – On the A48, speed reductions will be noticeable from 50 to 40mph. At this time the University Hospital will be visible on the right. Exit the next slip road, sign-posted "University Hospital" and turn right at the traffic lights along a short road leading directly onto the University Hospital site.

Car Parking

The Cathays Park campus – Two Park and Ride services operate in Cardiff – one from the East of the city (£3.00 per car) and one from the West of the city

(£3.00 per person). See Map 2 for location. Car parking in the University car parks is extremely limited and a permit is required. However, there are several public car parks located close to the University, all of which are marked on Map 4. There is also pay and display car parking available on Park Place and within the civic centre (along College Road, City Hall Road, King Edward VII Avenue and Museum Avenue). This typically costs around £3.50 for two hours. Payment is by coin or debit/credit card. Parking in the North Road car park is £5.00 per day. (Charges for city centre multi-storey car parks vary considerably, up to £18.00 per day.)

The Heath Park campus – Limited car parking is available in various car parks.

By Rail / Coach / Bus

High speed inter-city trains provide frequent services between all major British cities. The Cardiff-London service, from London Paddington, runs at 30 minute intervals throughout the day. Frequent services also connect Cardiff with Bristol, Birmingham, Southampton, Manchester, Liverpool and with many other cities and towns. Cardiff is also served by regular coach services from towns and cities across the UK. From Cardiff Central Station there is a frequent train service which stops at Cathays Station (located on the Cathays Park campus). Local bus services also operate from Cardiff Central Station.

The Cathays Park campus – The No 27 service leaves Stand D4 every 15 minutes throughout the day.

The Heath Park campus – The No 38 service leaves St Mary Street (Stand JE) every 10 minutes throughout the day.

By Air

Cardiff Airport is 11 miles from the city centre. Coach and train services operate between Cardiff Central Station and London's Heathrow and Gatwick airports.

Cardiff University

Cardiff University is a world-leading, research-excellent, educationally outstanding university, driven by creativity and curiosity.

Founded in 1883, by Royal Charter, with thirteen members of academic staff and 151 students, today Cardiff University has grown to become one of the UK's largest, most respected and most popular universities.

We are a member of the UK's "Ivy League" of Russell Group research intensive universities. Our global community, research reputation and partnerships are at the centre of our identity.

As a research-intensive University which aims to be among the top 100 universities in the world, our commitment to research, innovation and enterprise is crucial.

Cardiff University has both national and international standing and is home to two Nobel Laureates, 11 Fellows of the Royal Society, five Fellows of the British Academy, and has been awarded five Queen's Anniversary Prizes. The University is distinctive in its breadth of academic provision for professional bodies, both in education and research.

We pride ourselves on delivering an outstanding student experience, an experience we believe should be open to all. Students benefit from a stimulating study environment, research-led teaching and interaction with academics working at the frontiers of knowledge in their field.

Our thriving international student community of more than 3,500 students from 100 different countries play a very significant role in the international life of our institution and across Wales.

A growing number of our students undertake a period of study overseas annually as part of their degree. This helps them build cultural awareness and enhance their employability. We also welcome hundreds of students from continental Europe and further afield on exchange programmes.

As a major higher education provider for the professions, we have around 300 undergraduate and postgraduate taught courses that are accredited by more than 50 professional bodies. In total more than 20% of Cardiff University students pursue postgraduate study.

Our students are valued by employers for their academic ability, high-calibre, motivation, extra-curricular activities and resourcefulness.

We have more than 170,000 alumni in over 180 countries around the world. Our graduates return home as ambassadors for Cardiff University, Wales and the UK.
